the court under any order known to the court." "The court also informed Major Gen'l Scott that all the parties to which the order referred would be present in court to-morrow morning at the regular hour of meeting. "Gen'l Scott here rose and said: That the court might well conceive how much, how deeply, he had been wounded by the information just communicated. Far distant from his country, his home, and his family, he found himself but a prisoner at large in the capital of the Mexican Republic ; struck down by the supreme military power from a high command -a command of some considerable elevation, of some considerable glory-the highest, perhaps, in view of the numbers, the valor and prowess of the army, held by an American soldier since the days of Washington. Nor was this all. He found himself placed as the chief criminal before the court, and was informed that one of the parties against whom a specific charge was preferred by him, has been acquitted and rewarded before trial, by the highest constitutional military authority of our country. The accused had now become the accuser, the judge the criminal .-Deeply wounded as I am, continued the General, I pause, but not for ideas-they crowd upon me; not for want of feeling-my feelings are too deep for utterance; but I wish, Mr. President, to keep in order-if these remarks are not, I bow in deference to the decision of the court.

"The President in reply stated that the remarks were infringing upon the rules of order, and Gen'l Scott immediately resumed his seat. Whereupon, the President declared the Court adjourned until to-morrow morning. " J. M. J." We find in El Monitor Republicano, of the 17th, one day's later proceedings:

" Court of Investigation .- Yesterday morning, at ten o'clock, the members of the Court Martial again assembled, being present Gen'l Scott, with his staff, Gen'ls Worth and Pillow, Col. Duncan, and many other officers of the army. The judges, after having been constituted according to regulation, expressed their readiness to investigate the charges of Gen'l Worth against Gen'l Scott. The latter rose, and stated that he was there to listen to what had been alleged against him. He then produced a letter, which, by permission of the Court, he read, having reference to the arrest of Lt. Col. Duncan, stating that he did not consider the court a tribunal to examine and decide upon any or all the charges that had been brought against him. At this point he was interrupted by the Judge Advocate, who read the following letter: "HEADQUARTERS OF THE FIRST DIVISION. )

Tacubaya, (Mexico.) March 14, 1848. "Sir-In the matter of my appeal against Gen'l Scott, the commander-in-chief of the army, the President has rendered me full and ample justice. For the welfare and harmony of the service, I wish, therefore, to withdraw the accusations made in my appeal against Major General Scott.

"I have the honor to be your most ob't ser-W. J. WORTH. "To Gen. N. Towson, Pres. Court of Investigation."

"After this letter had been perused by all, the doors of the court were closed. When the court re-opened the Judge Advocate announced that he had determined to suspend proceedings for the moment, and that if the parties had no objection he would fix motions, rules, &c. Gen'l Scott opposed this decision, on account of the trouble which the taking down in writing of the interlocutory questions that might be started in the sequel of the investigation would occasion, when the Court proposed that the case should be suspended, and that it should proceed to that of General Pillow. General Scott then requested that the court should take down some of his observations, that they might appear on the record, as well as some others which he was about to make, which the court refused. He then demanded of the court, in order to save time, to proceed with the case of Lieut. Col. Duncan, for which he was prepared. After some remarks made by the court, Gen. Scott repeated that his object in pressing the matter was to save time. The court was then organized to investigate solely the case of Gen. Scott, and not to take cognizance of that of Col. Duncan for which it was not specially prepared. Gen Scott insisted upon reading a document rela ting the charges against Col. Duncan, which the court refused to admit.

"Gen. Pillow rose and demanded that he should be allowed to vindicate himself, and that he was the more anxious as there was every probability of peace being established that he entered the service by virtue of a law which in case of peace would require his im mediate departure, and that if his defence were put off it might be extended to a longer peri od than he would wish to remain in his pres ent position; he hoped the court would not pro ceed with the case of Col. Duncan. "The court ordered that the case of Gen'

Scott should be deferred until the following day, and decided to go on with the case of Col Duncan. Thereupon General Scott proceeded to make two charges:

"1st.-A violation of the army regulations, which prohibit the publication of letters or despatches not published by authority relating to military operations.

"2d .- Some fact asserted by Col. Duncan offer. in the letter and the answer of that officer to "Having concluded, Gen. Scott withdrew erate at quotations. his accusation against Col, Dunean and did general stated he would, notwithstanding reply to the accusation made by General Scott, her physicians--Sherman's Balsam was given and it cured her. Mrs. Garrabrantz, of bull's Ferry, was also cured of consumption by this Balsam when all other remedies failed to give relief-she was reduced to a skelleton. Dr. A. C. Castle, Dentist, 281 Broadway, has witnessed its effects in several cases where no other medicine afforded relief--but the Balsam operated like a charm. Dr. C. also Broad Cloths; Carpeting, a good supply; witnessed its wonderful effects in curing Asthma, which it never fails of doing. Spitting Blood, alarming as it may be, is effectually cured by this Balsam. It heals the ruptured or wounded blood to vessels, and makes the lungs sound again. Rev. Henry Jones, 108 Eighth avenue, was cured of cough and catarrhal affection of 50 years standing. The first dose gave him more relief than all the other medicine he had ever taken .--Dr. L. J.
